

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

"ONE PAPER."

The following letter was received yesterday:

TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:— I am glad to see one paper with nerve enough to stand up for pure politics and independent citizenship in Nevada. To a man who surveys the field from this point, the condition of affairs is pitiable. It does not seem to me that the people there give it sufficient thought. I hope you will weed out the transgressors. I want the APPEAL for one year.

H. E. WRIGHT, 518 Montgomery St., San Francisco. The APPEAL is in receipt of a good many such letters from old Carsonites. While we are, as Mr. Wright says, the "one paper" that attacks corruption, we would much rather not bear the honor alone. We would be glad to welcome to our side the two other papers in this city as advocates of the cause which the APPEAL has been obliged to champion single handed.

We have never yet heard a word of protest from our contemporaries while the taxpayers were being openly plundered. They have never made a single move to assist in "weeding out the transgressors."

It begins to look to the public as if they were the retained organs of the gang of rascals who had robbed and ruled Ormsby, or else feared to lift their voice in protest.

The APPEAL is published in the interests of no clique; it is published for the taxpayers of Ormsby; the rank and file who support it because it tells the truth about all classes of officials and wears no party collar.

It is not yet too late for our timid contemporaries to cut loose from the miserable clique that feeds and fosters them for their personal use.

It pays to serve the public. Try it some time and see if you don't admit it.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Geary act cannot be enforced as it costs too much.

The ore in the Potia pinched out on the ten hundred level.

The Denver News says the men who voted for Cleveland and "hollered" for free coinage feel like the boy who tried to hold the mule by its heels.

Litigation has broken out in the Buckeye district. Last Saturday an injunction was granted by Judge Cheeny against the further working of ore of the mines until the case could be settled in court.

Eastern papers are commenting on the fact that Chairman Clarkson in his speech at the Louisville convention did not mention "protection and reciprocity," the battle-cry of the old Republicans in the late campaign, and are asking if the young Republicans have thrown those principles to the wind.

When the Snow Melts.

As usual every year when the snow melts, whisky bottles and tin cans of all descriptions are cropping out along the road, showing what meat our Carsonians fed upon during the winter. The display in front of our rabid temperance neighbor's premises show that he preached what he didn't practice. He must have been drunk for months.—Homer Index.

A New Fire Bell.

The Warren have received a new alarm bell from the East, weighing 1100 pounds. It is claimed for it that it can be heard five miles, which will be an advantage to people in Empire, who will in future be able to tell whether we are having a fire or celebrating a silver victory. Fire away.

Lively Horses.

Yesterday a horse attached to a cart driven by Sol Briggs, ran away upsetting the cart and causing the horse drawing it to stampede, a race horse fastened near by also took to the road. The air was full of wheel spokes and horses for a spell.

It is rumored about that an attempt will soon be made to reduce the miners' wages in Bodie from four dollars to three dollars per day.
